

ADD VALUABLE INTERACTIVE CONTENT TO YOUR WEBSITE

TCalc financial calculators are valuable content on your website that creates an interactive experience to help your customers answer all of their personal financial questions.

Financial Calculators Give Your Clients a Reason to Visit Your Website

- Calculators are often one of the most visited pages on a website
- Add links or promotions to individual calculators to promote your products
- Choose calculators by bundle, category, or individually from 45 personal financing calculators
- Capture lead information from your calculators

Integrating the Calculators is as Easy as Copy and Paste

- Calculators replicate your existing site by automatically adjusting to match your fonts, colors, and navigation
- The calculators can be run from either a single page or from multiple pages and your customer never leaves your site
- Usage tracking reporting gives you the tools to measure and report on the effectiveness of your calculators

Create the Right Look for Your Website

- Easily customize the fonts, color, navigation and layout to match your brand
- Add links and promotions to calculators to highlight a specific product. Contact us for examples of how other banks and credit unions are using calculators to service their customers and generate qualified leads
- Add different calculators throughout your website to support products you want to promote

Informative, Educational, and Fun to Use

- A simple question and answer format makes TCalc financial calculators simple to use
- Dynamic charts and graphs make calculations informative, easy, and fun
- Calculator presentations are easy to understand for even the non-financial customer
- Mobile friendly and cross platform compliant, they work with any browser

"I can't say enough great things about my experience with TCalc Calculators. From the very first phone call, your customer service has been excellent. Quick replies on emails, quick follow-ups, and step-by-step tutorial to help me trouble shoot. You have gone above and beyond."

- Crista Gebhardt, Director of Sales & Marketing, Web Development, e-websmart
